Pat Carmody Captures 2:18 Pace in Straight Heats, While Alta Evans Goes Four Heats Before Winning.

BY BOB PIGUE.

Local talent had a bad day at the regular daily races of the Tri-State fair Wednesday, when foreign entries went out and brought home the bacon in both the trot and pace. The win, place and show positions all went to the invaders, who stepped by the Memphis entries after some of the liveliest competition that has been seen on the local oval since the fair started.

CARMODY IN FRONT.

CARMODY IN FRONT.

Pat Carmody, a black geiding by Al Stanley, driven by Tolley, showed the way in the 2:18 pace, winning the event in straight heats, but not until Patrick had extended himself quite a bit. Harvest Day and Lorraine were in the race all the way, and threatened to win a heat from Pat several times, but Tolley manged to pull his entry out in front, and came home a winner.

In the 2:17 trot, Alta Evans, driven by Greer, had to travel four heats before landing the victory. Alta Evans finished second in the first heat, but in the second, third and fourth heats sign, unlimbered and walked away from the field. Colonel York, a black geiding gave Alta Evans the most trouble, finishing second on two occasions, after having won the initial heat.

Billy Dwyer, a local reinsman pi-loted Aleck Penn to a victory in the matinee for trotters and pacers, copping the handsome silver loving cup. Aleck Penn came home in straight heats without even extend-straight heats without even extending himself.

Melba II. with Courtney Lewis up, came in for second place, finishing fifth in the first heat and after a fine drive coming in second in the final go-round. Lewis was at the rear of the field at the getaway on the second heat, but he managed to pass everything on the track except Aleck Penn, who remained out in front with a good lead.
In the first heat My Star, a lanky pacer, driven by Luther McCallum.

pacer, driven by Luther McCallum, came home second. McCallum withdrew his entry after the first heat owing to his inability to get his animal away with the field the start the second heat.

LOCALS FAIL TO SHOW.

Local talent in the harness races failed to stack up against the invaders Wednesday, who seemed to be at their best. In the pace stake. Arnold W., owned and driven by Billy Robinson, of Memphis, made a gallant fight, but the best he could do was to finish fifth in the three heats. In the 2:17 trot, Paul Dillard, a chestnut gray, started out well, and finished third in the first heat, but in the second and third heats Paul could do no better than fifth. Frank Podesta rode behind Paul Dillard.

Podesta rode behind Paul Dillard. Heliobas, owned and driven by Cones, was distanced in the first heat.

The pace stake carried with it $800 added money, while the trot was worth $400.

HOOFBEATS.

Luther McCallum's big pacer, My Star, looked good in the first heat of the matinee race, and came in second. Luther was axious to take a shot in the second heat, but he was unable to bring his entry down to the wire with the rest of the field, and after several vain attempts he withdrew My Star from the field.

The showing made by My Star in the first heat led Ralibirds to figure that he would have given Aleck Penn a hard fight for the honors had he raced in the second heat.

In the fourth heat of the 2:17 trot. Oriver Greer was forced to use the whip on Alta Evans as the field came down to the finish, for she was being hard pressed by Galbetta M., and it appeared as if the latter entry would win the heat. Greer's animal broke just as the tape was reached. but went over the winner by the margin of a whisker.

In the first heat of the trot Yan ity II and Heliobas were distanced.

The time for the pace was 2:121-2, 2:121-4 and 2:121-4. In the trot the time was 2:151-4, 2:161-4, 2:161-4

UP IN 1905 SERIES Two Attempts Made to Fix

DECLARE RUBE

Big Games, According to Horace Fogel, Former President of Phillies. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—Horace S. Fogel, former president of the Phillies, is quoted in a story published today by the Inquirer as declaring that two attempts were made o "fix" players here in recent years and that the evidence is in the archives of the major league officials chives of the major league officials and club owners.

The first attempt, according to Fogel's story, was made in 1905, when a trio of New York gamblers, "headed by Little Tim Sullivan," approached Rube Waddell, star pitcher of the Philadelphia Americans, and offered him $17,000 if he would not pitch in the world's series against the in the world's series against the Giants, who won the series chiefly through the masterly work of Christopher Mathewson.

Waddell, now dead, did not appear in any of the games, the reason given being that he had hurt his pitching arm by stumbling over a suit case while on a train. Fogel, according to the story, says Waddell was paid $500 in a Boston hotel, but that he was double-crossed out of the remainder.

Tries It on Dooin.

The other attempt, Fogel is quoted as saying, was made in 1908, when a former Giant player, now a magnate in a Western town minor league tried to bribe Charlie Dooin, Otto Knabe, "Kitty" Bransfield, Mike Doolan and Sherwood Magee, offered them from $1,000 to $5,000 each to remain out of a series of games played here. At the time Chicago and the Giants were having a neck-and-neck race and Coveleskie pitched three games in five games for the Phillies, winning them all.
Connie Mack, manager of the Ath-letics, said last night he knew nothof Fogel's charges regarding

"You can't prove anything by me," said Mack. "I think baseball has been clean up to the time the White Sox and Cincinnati met in the last world's series."
